

For Immediate Release

September 1, 2008

Daniel Sanders to Coach FWBBC Volleyball

NASHVILLE, TN—College officials announced that a new women's volleyball coach for Free Will Baptist Bible College has been named in time for the 2008 fall semester. Twenty-seven-year-old Middle Tennessee resident Daniel Sanders began his duties in late August. Sanders is project manager at the F.M. Russell Company.

Athletic Director Mike Phillips said, "We welcome Daniel to FWBBC as he steps in and takes charge of the women's volleyball program. With his military background, he brings a sense of discipline and hard work to the program."

Mr. Sanders, a Nashville native, attended Tennessee Tech and is currently pursuing a business degree at Volunteer State Community College. His hobbies include jumping out of air planes and playing ice hockey. He succeeds former women's volleyball coach Dee Dee Vandivort.

"I'm very excited for the opportunity to coach the volleyball team," Sanders said. "I think we will have the most motivated and best disciplined team to date. It should be an exciting season for everyone."

Daniel and Kristi Sanders have one child, Ashlyn, who is three years old.