NASHVILLE, TN—Mrs. Elizabeth (Hale) Lemons, an Illinois native and 2006 Free Will Baptist Bible College graduate, has been named women's basketball coach, according to Mike Phillips, athletic director. Mrs. Hale played three years with the Lady Flames while a student at FWBBC. She brings coaching experience to her new role, having served two years as assistant coach for the men's basketball team at Pleasant View Christian School.

Dr. Phillips said, "The student-athletes and the entire FWBBC community will immediately see her love and passion not only for basketball, but for people as well. I think the Athletic Committee made a great decision when they recommended Liz Lemons."

Lemons (age 24) begins her new duties as women's basketball coach immediately. Originally from Edington, Illinois, she completed a B.S. degree in Exercise Science at FWBBC. Elizabeth and husband Michael live in Nashville where she works at Curves Fitness.

"I am very excited about the opportunity to return to my alma mater," she said, "and give back some of what was given to me. This is a great responsibility, and I look forward to building relationships with our players, students, and staff."
